(Before Dr. Renato de Noronha, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Reference No.: IT/25/83

1. Workmen V/s — Party I

1. M/s. Fabrica de Gas Carbonico Private Limited — Party II

Panaji, Dated: 18-3-1985

AWARD

The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu, by its Order No. 28/11/82-ILD dated 2nd December, 1982, has referred for the adjudication of this Tribunal of an industrial dispute between the above parties. The schedule annexed to the Order of Reference reads as follows:

"Whether the action of the employer, M/s. Fabrica de Gas Carbonico Private Limited, Margão, Salcete, Goa in terminating the services of the following workmen with effect from 27-8-1980 is legal and justified?"

Sr. No.	Name of the workmen	Designation
1.	Shri Dionisio Dourado	Clerk G. I.
2.	Shri Suresh K. Nagvenkar	Accounts Clerk
3.	Shri Santosh Borkar	Helper
4.	Shri Joaquim Barretto	Jr. Plant Operator
5.	Shri Umesh Naik	Helper
6.	Shri Domingo Piedade Fernandes	Shop/Depot Assistant
7.	Shri Neves Monteiro	Driver
8.	Mrs. Lily Borges	Sweeper
9.	Shri Bhir Bhahadur	Watchman

If not, to what relief the said workmen are entitled to?"

2. After statement of claim and written statement were filed by the parties, issues were framed and, among them, one preliminary issue, which reads as follows:

"Whether the Union proves that it has been duly authorised by the workmen to represent them in this case?"

3. This issue was framed on the basis of the objections raised by the employer in para 1 of its written statement, wherein it was stated that the Union has no locus standi to sponsor the dispute so as to invest it with the status of an industrial dispute, or that the said Union claims a representative character in such a way that its support to the cause would make the dispute an industrial dispute.

4. On the above issue, the Union led the evidence of one Suresh Nagvenkar, one of the employees. He has stated that he was working with the employers from 11-7-1979 as Accounts Clerk. In the first week of August 1980, all the workmen of the employer formed a Union known as Goa Trade and Commercial Workers' Union, so as to enable the said Union to put forth before the Management their demands which were not considered by the employer when they personally approached the employer; the General Secretary of the Union Shri George Vaz, on 11-8-1980 addressed a letter to the Factories and Boiler Inspector, complaining about the violation of factory regulation by Party II. The services of the workmen were terminated from 27-8-1980 and after such termination, the General Secretary of the Union wrote a letter to the employer with a copy to the Labour Commissioner (Exh W-1) and on 30-8-1980 another letter to the Labour Commissioner. These letters and copies of the conciliation proceedings (Exh W-2 colly.) would show that it is the Union who had represented the workmen's case before the Labour Commissioner. When conciliation proceedings were going on before the Labour Commissioner, the witness and some other employees were attending the conciliation proceedings. From the Management's side, nobody attended the said proceedings.

In his cross: He has stated that the Union was formed in the 1st week of August 1980; he does not remember the names of the persons who attended the meeting for the formation of the Union which was held at Assnora at George Vaz's residence, but he remembers some 8 names, which he has mentioned. In that meeting, membership forms were filled by the workers who attended the meeting. The 2nd meeting took place after the termination of the services of 9 workers. The membership forms were given to Mr. George Vaz, who, in return, gave them counter foils. He does not remember where his counter foil lies since some years have passed. He does not remember whether, after the formation of the Union, any information about this fact was sent to the Management of the employer. He has denied the suggestion that he was not a member of the Union. To a Court question, he has replied that all 25 members had attended the Meeting.

This is all the evidence led by the Union.

5. I have heard the arguments advanced by the Ld. Rep. of both the parties. The Ld. Rep. of the Union, in order to prove the formation of the Union and its representative character in respect of the staff of the employer, has relied on the statement of the witness Shri Suresh Narvenkar. On the other side, the Ld. Rep. of the employer has denied that there was any such Union of the staff of the employer and, therefore, according to him, the Union would have no locus standi to sponsor its case. He has relied on the ruling of the Madras High Court in the case of Murugan Transport Transport V/s. Their workers and another, reported in 1949 LLJ page 349. In this ruling, reference was made to another ruling of the bench of the same court in Kandian Textiles Limited V/s. Industrial Tribunal, Madras, reported in 1949 LLJ page 880, and the following observations made in the said ruling, reproduced:

"In the absence of any definite particulars as to the membership of this Union, and its representative character, and in the absence of anything to show that it was decided by the workmen-members of this Union by resolution or otherwise to take up the cause of the aggrieved workmen, in the absence of evidence to show that the aggrieved workmen put forward the President of this Union as their representative and spokesman, it is impossible to hold in law that an industrial dispute existed between the employer and the workmen to enable the Government to make an order under S. 10(1) of the Act... In our opinion, it was incumbent on the Union by production of the relevant records to positively establish the fact that the Union is entitled to represent and that it is, as a matter of fact, representing these 36 aggrieved workers."

Their Lordships, in that case, came to the conclusion that "there is no satisfactory, in fact, no proof whatever to show that the General body authorised its Secretary or any of its other officers to make his demand on behalf of these 8 individuals of the Management. There was, therefore, no evidence whatever to show that there was an industrial dispute."

6. I fully agree with the above ruling, which is also attracted in our case. Besides the bare statement of one of the employees that the Union in question was formed and authorised by the members to represent their grievances, there is no other evidence, documentary or otherwise, to show that there was a General Body Meeting of the Union in which a Resolution was passed authorising the Executive committee of the Union or its General Secretary to take up the case of the workmen before the employer. Not even the membership forms were produced by the witness, who gave his statement before the Court. The mere fact that the Union addressed a letter Exh W-1 to the Management putting forth the demands of the workmen and later attending the Conciliation Proceedings before the Labour Commissioner, where the Management was not present, would not be sufficient to prove that the Union was authorised by its members to put forth their claims before the employer. Being so, taking up of the case of the workmen by the Union cannot by itself give the Union representative character so as to make the dispute an industrial dispute. If there is no industrial dispute, the Government had no authority in law to make the reference to the Industrial Tribunal.

7. In view of the above, I pass the following order:

ORDER

In the absence of an industrial dispute, the reference in question is bad in law and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain it. Hence, the same is dismissed. Each party to bear its own costs.
